Dear Parents

I start this week's newsletter with the wonderful news that Mrs. Curnow our Vice Chair of Governors was named "Governor of the Year" at the Cornwall Teaching Awards last Friday. We are so proud of her and feel this is such recognition for her dedication to the school for many, many years. Governors are a very important part of the school and if you would like to see minutes of the meetings, a reminder they are on the school website.

Next week our attention turns to the Year 6 as they sit their SATS tests. We wish them all the luck in the world and are sure they will do their very best. A reminder they will be having a SATS breakfast from Monday to Thursday next week starting at 8:30. Can I also remind all parents how important it is to get children in on time especially next week so we can minimise any disruption for the Year 6.

Have a great weekend,

Mr Gould

Rugby - Well done to the team last week. 1 win, 2 draws and a loss. Superb effort - Mr. Williams was very proud.

Sex and Relationships Education - a reminder Mrs. Law will be holding an information evening for parents on Thursday night at 6pm.

New Class - so far one suggestion for the new class name. Any others, please let me know asap.

Assembly - as everyone should know we are having a real focus on aspirations this term linking into a very exciting project we are launching after half term. Thank you to Ted and Nancy's mum for a great talk today about her role as a Barrister. Next week, we welcome an "Ironman" on Monday and Isaac and Reuben's Dad to talk about and demonstrate his career as a chef on Friday. Very exciting.

Personal Assistant Position - I am looking for a personal assistant with own transport to support my 14yr old daughter for 4hrs per week from 3.30 every Tuesday in Chacewater during term time and flexible hours during school holidays. Payment is £8/hr with most expenses paid depending on activities. A free enhanced DPS check will be necessary before hand. For further details please contact Vanessa Hawker
