Academy Trust

Dear Parents,

I start the newsletter this week with how proud I am of all the Year 6 children for their wonderful efforts in the SATS tests this week. They worked so hard and we now wait for the results which will come out in July. A huge thank you to the parents for their support including tea parties at Chacewater Garden centre, transport to various things, baking and some wonderful motivational messages of support - (see our twitter feed).

Whilst on the subject of thanks, a thank you to Jasmine and Leah's Dad who has made some wonderful planters for the school. You will see they have pride of place in various locations. Also, Isaac and Reuben's Dad gave a superb presentation on his life as a chef this morning with some mussel tasting.

Next week is very busy as ever - there will be no Cricket club on Tuesday as we will be holding a camp meeting for parents in Mrs. James classroom. Please join us after school where we can answer as many questions as possible about camp coming up at Barton Hall.

Have a great weekend,

Mr Gould

Sports news - Our Year 5 and 6 Bowls teams are competing in qualifiers for the Cornwall School Games today and on Monday - I'll update you next week. We have a football match against Cusgarne school on Monday and well done to our Girls team who played Devoran yesterday - it was great fun and seeing the enjoyment despite the defeat was amazing!

Friday - Please join us for afternoon tea in the park next Friday 25th after school .
